A corporation can change any part of its articles of incorporation by filing Articles of Amendment.

Instructions for completing the Articles of Amendment:

1. On the first page of the Articles of Amendment, indicate the corporation's name and its document number if you know it. (This number is usually listed on the top right-hand corner of the copy of the corporation's original Articles of Incorporation.
2. In the section entitled "First" list the article you wish to amend and list the amendment itself.
3. If the amendment deals with exchanging or cancellation shares of stock in the corporation, explain the procedure for exchanging or canceling the shares in the section entitled "Second." If your amendment does not deal with exchanging or canceling shares, or if you are authorizing additional shares, you do not need to complete this section.
4. In the section entitled "Third" list the date the amendment was adopted.
5. In the section entitled "Fourth" check one of the boxes to indicate how the amendment was approved by the shareholders.
6. An officer of the corporation must sign and date the form.
7. If the registered agent is being changed, the new agent must sign on a separate sheet accepting the appointment and must state that he or she is familiar with and accepts the obligations of the position.
